RESEARCH AND INNOVATION

We are serving the community and contributing to a better future for humankind by exploring:

We are encouraging cross-disciplinary research and research platforms in these areas:

- ▶ new horizons for human well-being
- ▶ the secrets of the universe
- ▶ the deepest parts of the ocean
- ▶ the fundamentals of the human body
- ▶ environmental innovations to create harmony between nature and humanity

INNOVATION

PLATFORMS

SJTU believes that universities, research institutes and industries need to harness their combined intellect to make scientific and technological innovations. As part of that, the university promotes the transformation of scientific and technological achievements in schools, incubates innovative enterprises and serves new industries by taking advantage of the National Science and Technology Park. Also, SJTU established a full-chain entrepreneurship incubation platform, NeoBay, which has been developing high-tech leading industries, such as marine equipment, medical robots, artificial intelligence, and new materials, for the needs of the new era.
